

The State of California
Department of Health Care Services
presents
Cost Report Training for Adult Day Health Care Providers

The Department of Health Care Services – Audits & Investigations is offering one additional training session for the new ADHC Cost Report format based on the passage of SB 1755. This additional session will be held in Sacramento, CA. ADHC Providers are encouraged to send cost report preparers and/or fiscal/financial personnel to learn and understand the mechanics of this new format which was released on May 5, 2008. Please join us for a fact-filled training session that will begin at 9:30 am and end at approximately 3:30 pm.

Proper completion of the cost report is crucial to establishing future ADHC reimbursement.
We strongly encourage you to attend this session if you missed the prior training.

This training session is free. Cost Report preparers are encouraged to attend.
